OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL / DENTAL INFORMATION:

We understand that medical/dental information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting medical/dental information about you. We create a record of the care and services you receive at the office. We need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This notice applies to all of the records of your care generated by the office, whether made by office personnel or your dentist. This notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose medical/dental information about you. We also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of medical/dental information. We reserve the right to change this notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed notice effective for medical/dental information we already have about you as well as any information we receive in the future. The notice will contain the effective date.

We are required by law to:

- Make sure that medical/dental information that identifies you is kept private; Give you this notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to medical/dental information about you; and Follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL / DENTAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU.

The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose medical/dental information. For each category of uses or disclosures we will explain what we mean and try to give some examples. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are permitted to use and disclose information will fall within one of the categories.

- For Treatment. We may use medical/dental information about you to provide you with dental treatment or services. We may disclose medical/dental information about you to other dentists, hygienists, laboratory technicians, or other office personnel who are involved in taking care of you at the office. For example, a dentist treating you for a periodontal condition may need to know if you have diabetes because diabetes may slow the healing process. If we need to disclose medical/dental information about you to people outside the office that may be involved in your care after you have left the office, such as family members, we will ask for your oral authorization and note this in your chart.
- For Payment. We may use and disclose medical/dental information about you so that the treatment and services you receive at the office may be billed to and payment may be collected from you, an insurance company or a third party. For example, we may need to give your health plan information about treatment you received at the office so that your health plan will pay us or reimburse you for the treatment. We may also tell your health plan about a treatment you are going to receive to obtain prior approval or to determine whether your plan will cover the treatment.
- For Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose medical/dental information about you for office operations. These uses and disclosures are necessary to run the office and make sure that all of our patients receive quality care. For example, we may use medical/dental information to review our treatment and services and to evaluate the performance of our staff in caring for you. We may also combine medical/dental information about many office patients to decide what additional services the office should offer, whether staff should be added, and whether certain new treatments are effective. We may also disclose information to dentists, laboratory technicians, and other office personnel for review and learning purposes.
- Appointment Reminders. We may use and disclose information to send you mailings reminding you that you have an appointment for treatment at the office. We also may leave telephone appointment messages on your home answering system, unless you advise us otherwise and choose to opt out (See Acknowledgement of Receipt of Notice of Privacy Rules).

- Treatment Alternatives. We may use and disclose medical/dental information to tell you about or recommend possible treatment options or alternatives that may be of interest to you.
- Health-Related Benefits and Services. We may use and disclose medical/dental information to tell you about health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you. This includes informing patients of products available at our office. Our practice is dedicated to protecting patient privacy. We will not sell or otherwise make available patient information for marketing purposes. (See Acknowledgement of Receipt of Notice of Privacy Rules).
- Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care. If we see the need to release medical/dental information about you to a friend or family member who is involved in your care or pays for your care, we will ask for oral consent or authorization from you to do so, depending on the circumstances. HIPAA provides that the Privacy Rules shall not interfere with effective patient care.
- As Required By Law. We will disclose medical/dental information about you when required to do so by federal, state or local law. In response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons or similar process; To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person; In emergency circumstances to report a crime; the location of the crime or victims; or the identity, description or location of the person who committed the crime.
- Workers' Compensation. We may release medical/dental information about you for workers' compensation or similar programs. These programs provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

  - To prevent or control disease, injury or disability; To report child abuse or neglect; To report reactions to medications or problems with products; To notify people of recalls of products they may be using; To notify the appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect or domestic violence. We will only make this disclosure if you agree or when required or authorized by law.
- Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors. We may release medical/dental information to a coroner or medical examiner. This may be necessary, for example, to identify a deceased person or determine the cause of death
- National Security and Intelligence Activities. We may release medical/dental information about you to authorized federal officials for intelligence, counterintelligence, and other national security activities authorized by law.
- Inmates. If you are an inmate of a correctional institution or under the custody of a law enforcement official, we may release medical/dental information about you to the correctional institution or law enforcement official. This release would be necessary (1) for the institution to provide you with dental care; (2) to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of others; or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional institution.
